Medical providers deserve to be paid what they're owed for their services to the injured. But auto insurance companies often underpay providers like you and the legal process involved with PIP claims can make reaching a fair resolution even more complicated.

We want to help. We've recovered millions of dollars on behalf of New Jersey and New York medical providers. Call 732-888-8888 or fill out our free online form to get started now.

Every step we take on behalf of our clients is based on a set of core beliefs we call the Judd Shaw Way. From ensuring all calls are returned within 24 hours to thorough record keeping, we treat clients the same way we treat our own team.

- Free post service appeal submissions. Our highly skilled appeals department will submit post service appeals on your behalf.
- The Judd Shaw Way. A member of our team will come to your office to put together the required documents needed to file for arbitration.

NO-FAULT PIP ARBITRATION

Attorney Judd Shaw has dedicated his practice to representing medical providers wrongly denied PIP reimbursements by No-Fault insurance carriers. As one of New Jersey's largest PIP arbitration firms, we have the experience and resources to protect your rights every step of the way. Judd and his team are widely respected for their depth of industry knowledge and ability to recover PIP medical expense benefits. Judd serves on the Advisory Council for Arbitration of No-Fault Disputes in the State of New Jersey and developed PIP-App®, which is a proprietary web-based system that provides real-time status updates and 24/7 access to critical information related to your claim.

From the moment you file a claim to the end result, communication with your No-Fault PIP attorney has never been easier.
