

JUDD SHAW

INJURY LAW

PIP Newsletter | February 2020

We ♥ Referrals

As we are celebrating February as the month of love, we're asking for some love too! A referral to us is the most meaningful form of flattery. As valued clients, you know our results and how much we care and we take your referral seriously. We treat your referral as we'd treat our own friends and family. When you refer a client to us you're helping them get the PIP reimbursement they deserve.

PIP News

If you got into an accident and had medical bills that exceeded $15,000, you could be on the hook for all of them between $15,000 and $250,000. The new laws change that for any accidents that occurred August 1st or later.

Read More

Recovery

$27 million collected for pain & spine cases. JSIL sought payment for PIP medical benefits on behalf of a pain management physicians, spine surgeons, orthopedic doctors, ambulatory care facilities and hospitals.

Case Results

Team Member Spotlight

Nick Catania is an associate attorney at Judd Shaw Injury Law in the No-Fault PIP Arbitration practice group. He brings a background in criminal, property, real estate, and personal injury law with him to the firm. Nick believes that the most successful attorneys are those who love their careers and always put their clients first by keeping them involved, informed, and happy with the representation they receive.

Learn More

The Judd Shaw Injury Law Blog

At Judd Shaw Injury Law we love random acts of kindness due to the endless ways to make others simply smile. With February coming to a close it's important to keep the love alive. If you need any ideas for how to spread a few random acts of kindness, look no further!

Read More

